Advisory Board Members Needed

Disability Services and Legal Center (DSLC) is seeking individuals to serve on an Advisory Board for its Native American Independent Living Demonstration Project. This is a new project. The main objective, of which, is to develop a successful model of service to Native Americans with Disabilities that can duplicated throughout the nation, thereby expanding and improving services to this historically underserved population.

Advisory Board Members will be regularly updated on the status of this project and be asked to provide feedback and guidance to Project Staff. As this is a volunteer position, Advisory Board Members time commitment will be kept to a minimum. Information will be distributed electronically. Meetings will take place quarterly by conference call.

DSLC is specifically seeking Advisory Members with strong Tribal backgrounds and/or experience working with Native Americans with Disabilities.

Interested individuals should contact:
